

Marry in Haste and Repent at Leisure

Azizur Rahman

Marrying in Haste and Repentance

If we get married hurriedly without thinking carefully, we may be sorry later.

Why should we be worried by getting married earlier by not thinking it further.

If we marry by getting scared in life living, the understanding may be a failure.

Let's make sure, my lover is with me for the whole life as we marry to assure.

Marriage is both a necessity and extra-responsibility allocated to us by nature.

People are suggested to get ready with education and training for a better future.

A bachelor goes fast by acquiring qualification and fitness for the life structure.

Before marriage, it is easy for us to prepare and fix the possible social layer.

People of early marriage are vulnerable to the low status of the social layer.

Relative to the married one, moving fast are the bachelor's car, tire and steer.

For marriage, people get ready with good floor for their worthy daughter.

Since she agreed to marry you with expectation, you don't let her repent later.

You do not want yourself suffer poverty by being an unlucky fellow as poor.

The bride needs to see the groom qualified and smart to be a potential earner.

Marriage takes place between family with similar name, fame status and honor.

Try to understand each other to marry if you can be a caring lover and partner.

For all the good reasons, do not marry in haste and repent during leisure.